Choosing a city: comparatives e superlatives

① Reading

Read the text and choose the correct answer.

Choosing a City to Live In

When people decide where to live, they often compare different cities. Some cities are more affordable than others, while some offer better job opportunities. For many young people, the safest and most affordable cities are not always the most exciting ones. Finding the right balance between cost, safety, and lifestyle can be one of the most important decisions in a person's life.
