

1ª série e 2ª série

Passive voice

EM13LGG403

Conjunções e voz passiva

① Combine the sentences

Choose the best way to combine the two sentences.

1. She studied hard. She wanted to pass the exam.

- ☐ a) She studied hard although she wanted to pass the exam.
- ☐ b) She studied hard because she wanted to pass the exam.
- ☐ c) She studied hard unless she wanted to pass the exam.

2. It was raining. We canceled the picnic.

- ☐ a) We canceled the picnic because it was raining.
- ☐ b) We canceled the picnic although it was raining.
- ☐ c) It was raining, but we canceled the picnic.

3. He was tired. He finished the race.

- ☐ a) He was tired, so he finished the race.
- ☐ b) He finished the race because he was tired.
- ☐ c) Although he was tired, he finished the race.

4. The store was closed. We went home.

- ☐ a) The store was closed, so we went home.
- ☐ b) The store was closed although we went home.
- ☐ c) We went home unless the store was closed.

② Passive voice

Complete the passive sentences with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

1. The annual festival _____ (organize) by the committee next year.

2. A delicious meal _____ (prepare) by the chef last night.

3. English _____ (speak) in many countries.

4. The windows _____ (clean) every Friday.

5. These houses _____ (build) in 1950.

③ Active or passive?

Choose the correct passive version.

1. The committee will organize the annual festival.

- ☐ a) The annual festival will organized by the committee.
- ☐ b) The annual festival will be organized by the committee.
- ☐ c) The annual festival is organized by the committee.

2. The chef prepared a delicious meal.

- ☐ a) A delicious meal was prepared by the chef.
- ☐ b) A delicious meal were prepared by the chef.
- ☐ c) A delicious meal has prepared by the chef.

3. Someone stole my bike.

- ☐ a) My bike stole.
- ☐ b) My bike is stolen by someone.
- ☐ c) My bike was stolen.